44. A quorum present.

Prayer by the Reverend J. D. Bowen, Chaplain:

Dear Lord, we thank thee for thy blessings and goodness, for we know that every blessing and every good gift comes from thee. While we are still and quiet for the moment, wilt thou calm our worries and misgivings, assure us of thy willingness to guide in all matters. May we distinguish between thy still small voice and the clamor of the selfish or unworthy. Let our concern for all the people harmonize with thine. In Jesus' name. Amen.

SCR 916—A concurrent resolution directing the Board of Regents to name the Geology Building at Florida State University the Wilson Carraway Building.

WHEREAS, Wilson Carraway for many years has been an ardent advocate of the expansion of Florida State University. In 1947, when the college became coeducational, he requested funds for building a science building and since has espoused the cause of this University both in and out of the Legislature, and

WHEREAS, subsequent to 1947 the distinguished Senator from the Eighth District was elected to serve Leon county in the Senate of Florida and since 1958 has contributed invaluable service to the state's fiscal affairs, and

WHEREAS, during this period of time he has been an earnest advocate for higher education, and has during two sessions of Legislature served the Senate as chairman of the appropriations committee, and was honored to serve as President of the Senate during the 1963 session of Legislature, and

WHEREAS, during his term in the Senate he has been instrumental in securing finances for the expansion of the science department of the University by personally sponsoring legislation to build and furnish the new geology building at Florida State University, and

WHEREAS, this Senate desires to recognize his outstanding service by naming the geology building the Wilson Carraway Building as an honor to him during his lifetime and as our expression of appreciation for the many hours he has spent in behalf of the University and in behalf of the fellow members of the Senate since he has been a member, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

That the Board of Regents is hereby directed to designate the geology building at Florida State University the Wilson Carraway Building and to prepare an appropriate plaque to be attached thereto in honor of the distinguished Senator of the Eighth District.

SM 917—A Memorial to the Congress of the United States urging the preservation of the dual banking system and defeat of any measure requiring a state bank to become a member of the federal reserve system.

TO THE HONORABLE MEMBERS OF THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED:

WHEREAS, the several states throughout the United States recognize the importance of the dual banking system, and

WHEREAS, during recent years legislation has been passed by the Congress of the United States encroaching upon the rights of state banks and their protection by state law, and

WHEREAS, in recent years there has been a determined effort by federal agencies to expand the scope of national bank charters without regard to existing state law, and

WHEREAS, federal legislation is now being sought to further reduce the true meaning and effectiveness of the dual banking system, and

WHEREAS, the dual banking system serves a vital function in stabilizing banking services necessary to and in the best interest of the public, and

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States should take immediate and appropriate steps to preserve the dual banking system, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the honorable members of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States be and are hereby requested to take appropriate steps to preserve the dual banking system of state and federal banks.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the honorable members of the Congress be and are hereby memorialized to defeat any measure coming before them which has for its purpose the requirement that each state bank shall become a member of the federal reserve system.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this memorial be dispatched to the President of the United States; to the President of the United States Senate; to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives; to the ablest congressional delegation in the United States Congress, the Florida Delegation; and to the Governor of the great State of Florida.

SCR 938—A concurrent resolution directing the legislative council and/or board of commissioners of state institutions to inventory and study the need for nursing home care or other programs for the protection, care and well-being of our senior citizens and to present recommendations to the 1967 legislature as to how these needs can best be met.

WHEREAS, it is recognized that a large measure of the growth and development of Florida, dramatic as it has been, is due to the efforts of dedicated citizens who now have reached retirement age, and

WHEREAS, many of these senior citizens, having contributed so much to this land they love, now find themselves hard pressed through shrinking retirement incomes to provide the care to which they are entitled from an affluent society in which they live, and

WHEREAS, many of these senior citizens, because of age alone, are committed to state hospitals and other institutions at great cost to the people of Florida, and where rightfully they should not be, and

WHEREAS, this state has never developed adequate nursing home care or other programs for the protection, care and well-being of our senior citizens, and

WHEREAS, it is desired that such programs as will assure the proper protection, care and well-being of our senior citizens be developed out of concern for them, as well as a concern to insure maximum benefit from public funds allocated for these purposes, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida, the Senate Concurring:

That the legislative council and/or the board of commissioners of state institutions are directed to inventory and study the needs for such programs as will properly benefit our senior citizens, and to present recommendations to the 1967 legislature as to how these needs can best be met.

Was read the first time in full and referred to the Committee on Welfare.

By Senator Pope—
